

Nellie Smith with her bicycle

Nellie Smith of New Bradwell worked in the Sewing Room at Wolverton Railway Works, but found it boring and conditions poor. She lived for her concerts and pageants with Stantonbury Girls' Club, which helped raise charity funds.

Nellie used her bike for work and to get to the fetes in different villages.

Source HF1