Personal attention is given to all Orders, and patrons can rely upon receiving prompt delivery in town or country. We hope to be favoured with your esteemed commands.

Yours faithfully,

Walton's Stores.

This price list from Walton's Stores in Newport Pagnell was given to customers so they could order food for delivery by bicycle or horse and cart.

It gives an idea of prices at the time and the type of seasonal food eaten. Many of these, such as the nuts and oranges, were imported but much rarer later in the War because of attacks on cargo ships.
